THE DIAMOND MATCH CO.

PEA RIDGE.

Mrs. Julian Suter, Miss Kate Suter and Miss Edith Edge have returned home, after a week's pleasant visit amongst friends in Owen county.

Several sheep were killed by dogs in this neighborhood last week.

There was a very pleasant, well attended social at Mr. Bob Suduth's last Saturday night.

Lagrippe is quite prevalent in our neighborhood and whooping cough is still holding its own.

Little Frank Edge fell on the icy ground last week, striking his temple on a rock, and otherwise bruising himself quite badly.

The many little boys who have had rides on the big sheep, with Frank Edge, will be sorry to hear that the dogs wounded him so badly that, in spite of all the doctoring that could be done, he died a week later. He was sorrowfully buried by Frankie.

Mrs. Emma Collins is on the sick list this week. We hope she will soon be well.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Mattie Clipper is quite ill.

Mr. William Collins still remains in very bad health.

Several of our other neighbors have the grippe. We hope our sick neighbors will soon be well again.

One of the sheep torn by dogs, after limping a week, developed symptoms of hydrophobia.

Mrs. Suter and daughter were the guests of Mrs. L. Edge one day this week.

Mrs. Winifred Lacefield was the guest of Miss Jennie Lacefield this week.

Mr. John Woods and wife are quite ill, and have not returned home yet.

Little Miss Rosa May Wilson is quite sick.

There are two empty houses on the Ridge—a very unusual thing.

The Brownlow bill, so highly spoken of by the Roundabout last week, to appropriate money to construct roads throughout the State is one of the best measures offered in fifty years. Every dollar will be spent right at home. The small amount asked for ought to insure its passage, as it will do our people more good than the millions spent for war purposes.

The passage of the Capitol Appropriation bill seems to have put the Roundabout in a good humor with "all the world and the Talla-pooosa river."

Nearly all our officers and citizens have been commended.

Quite a number of our people attended the Goebel Memorial Services at the Frankfort Cemetery last Wednesday.

FORKS OF ELKHORN.

Fine winter weather.

Mrs. Fannie Parrent is the guest of friends in and near our village.

Miss Sallie Suter, who has had la grippe, is able to be out again.

Mr. Oscar Cannon, of Lexington, was a visitor in our village last week.

Misses Bettie Bowen and Pattie South spent last week in Frankfort, the guests of friends.

Miss Mae Hockensmith is home from Georgetown, sick with measles.

Mr. Sandy Holton visited his brother in Shelbyville this week.

Little Francis Epler, who has been ill with pneumonia, is entirely well again.

Mr. John Porter and family, of White Sulphur, spent Sunday last with Mrs. John Moreland.

A KID.

BENSON NEWS.

Coughs and colds are an epidemic in this vicinity.

Mrs. Hewitt Jenkins, of Louisville, is visiting her brother, Mr. Ezra Lee Sheets, of Choateville.

Rev. John H. Burdin was unanimously called, Saturday, at North Benson. This makes the third time Bro. Burdin has been unanimously called. He preached a good sermon Sunday. There was a large crowd there, considering the mud and wind.

Miss Mattie Conway, of Frankfort, spent the day Sunday with Mrs. J. H. Sheets and family.

Miss Maude Pence, of Choateville neighborhood, had better watch out for "madam rumor" says Mr. Elwood Hamilton called on his old sweetheart three times Sunday. Miss Maude keep your eyes open.

Mr. Leonard Goins and his pretty bride were at church Sunday.

Mr. Elwood Hamilton, of Louisville, spent several days with his parents.

Mrs. Georgia Ann Hamilton, of Lexington, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. James Riddle.

Mr. J. J. Huette, of Benson, had a slight stroke of paralysis Sunday night, but is better at this writing.

Well, Valentine Day is almost here. I presume the boys and girls of this vicinity will receive a great many.
